

Special Meeting

Sunday, November 18, 2012

Please come for a special teaching time!

Our Rabbi, Chaim Richman, will bring a notable lesson from Torah to us at 1:00 PM.

Then, at approximately 2:45, the Rebbetzin, Rena Richman, will speak to us from her heart.

Join us for what we know will be a remarkable time together. Pass this information along to anyone you know. Bring someone that hasn't been in a while or bring someone new.

That evening at 7:00, Sharir Richman will be giving a self-defense class. Sharir is a seasoned Israeli Krav Maga instructor Certified by the Israeli Army and The Israeli Wingate institute.

Sharir Richman's credentials are too numerous to mention. Briefly, he has experience teaching in the Israeli army, as well as teaching for Israeli private security companies, and civilian, military and corporate personal worldwide.

This class will be held at Reese Center. More information will be given once the space is confirmed. Directions will be given at the end of the afternoon sessions.
